

BRAND GUIDELINES

v1.0 April 2023

INTRODUCTION

The purpose of these Brand Guidelines is to direct the correct and consistent implementation of the Adelaide Plains Council brand to ensure greater overall brand awareness and recognition with our community.

Included in this guide is important information about the Adelaide Plains Council logo and how it translates to core brand elements such as the colour palette and typography.

This document acts as a reference for all corporate and promotional materials and should be followed as closely as possible to ensure the Adelaide Plains Council brand presents at an appropriately high level of quality at every contact point with our community and stakeholders.

Although some flexibility is necessary, any departure from these guidelines must receive permission from a Director.

Abiding by these guidelines when designing collateral and communicating with residents and ratepayers, the public, media and stakeholders is compulsory

With consistency in using these design elements the visual connection to the Adelaide Plains Council will become stronger and more memorable.

OUR BRAND'S STORY

Our logo design is based on the concept of the land use along with natural landscapes in our region.

Adelaide Plains Council is bordered by land on the northern and eastern boundaries and the west boundary is sea. There are two rivers that cross the region from the east to the west. Land is used for agriculture with wheat, vines, olives and natural vegetation.

Using this concept the colours that were introduced are - a deep red and dark blue depicting the borders, a light blue depicting the two rivers, yellow depicting the crops of wheat and green depicting the horticultural and bushland.

Our Brand communicates who Adelaide Plains Council is - and how we show this in our design and writing.

A brand is more than a logo. It is who we are and how we show this to our community, and our logo is the symbol that encapsulates this all and helps people quickly identify that something is part of Adelaide Plains Council.

Use these brand words to guide all writing and design.

ADELAIDE PLAINS COUNCIL'S BRAND IS:

DIVERSE
SUPPORTIVE
AUTHENTIC COMMUNITY FOCUSED

The Adelaide Plains Council logo has been carefully designed in a fresh, modern style intended to communicate the vibrant energy of the brand. As such the logo should not be altered, recreated, reconstructed or distorted in any way.

The logo features these elements:

- The brand name, 'Adelaide Plains Council'
- Red and dark blue to represent the Council borders, light blue shapes representing the two rivers that run through the region and green and yellow shapes that represent the land use of the region.

FILE FORMATS

The Adelaide Plains Council logos are available in a number of formats to suit both print and on-screen/web purposes. In recommended order of priority, these are:

For print	On-screen
• AI	• PNG
• EPS	• GIF
	• JPG

Adelaide
Plains
Council

Where possible the logo should appear in colour. The colour logo is available in two colour formats; spot and CMYK.

SPOT COLOUR

Also known as Pantone, or PMS (Pantone Matching System). Typically used when printing letterheads, envelopes or with compliment slips – ie. not full colour/ photographic printing.

CMYK

Also known as full/process colour printing. Usually used for documents, brochures and small print runs ie. business cards.

MONO

Also known as black and white. Only in rare circumstances should the mono version of the logo be used. This will typically be in newspaper advertising.

REVERSE

Also known as white. Used when logo is placed over a solid background.

Reverse

The Adelaide Plains Council logo should appear as a stacked version if space allows.

The stacked version is supplied in the same formats as mentioned on the previous pages.

Adelaide Plains Council

A space equivalent to the height of the 'A' in Adelaide should be left around the logo at all times as a minimum.

To ensure legibility of the Adelaide Plains Council logo, the icon should never be printed smaller than 10mm High.

10mm H x 24mm W

17mm H x 19mm W

The Adelaide Plains Council logo should not be placed over photographic or patterned backgrounds.

When placed over a solid colour background, care should be taken to ensure there is sufficient contrast for the logo to be legible. However, negatively contrasting colours (eg. overly bright colours), are to be avoided.

Correct usage:
complete logo and sufficient contrast

Incorrect usage: insufficient contrast

Incorrect usage: incomplete logo

Incorrect usage:
busy photographic background

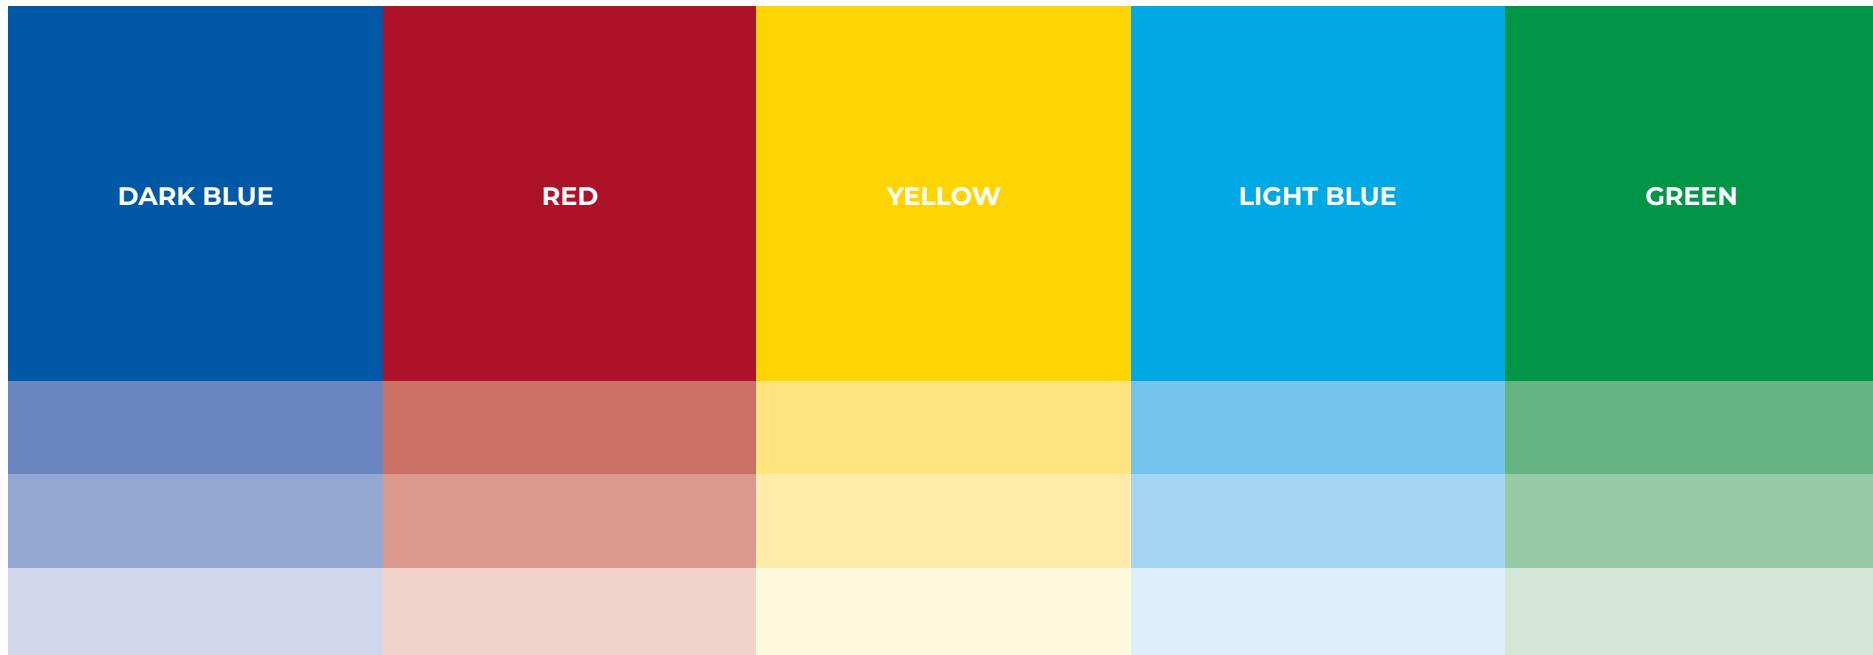

Incorrect usage:
recreated logo

Incorrect usage: distorted logo

The following colours are present in the Adelaide Plains Council logo. They are not the colours to be used for marketing collateral except for certain circumstances.

BRANDING COLOUR PALETTE

11

A refreshed suite of colours that are based off of the original logo colours have been developed for use in marketing collateral.

In addition to these colours, four extra secondary colours have been added to the colour palette. These colours can also be used in specific Council branded collateral.

Every colour does not need to be used all at once in designs. It is recommended that a maximum of four brand colours be used in designs at any one time.

TYPEFACES

The typefaces for Adelaide Plains Council are Montserrat and Sarabun.

Both typefaces are automatically installed on Council computers. Please contact Marketing or IT for advice in installing in other locations, or for access to the font file.

A note about non-standard fonts:
These fonts may not display on devices outside of Council, unless they are embedded into the file. For example, a recipient will see the document as normal if provided with a PDF, but may not see it in Microsoft Word. These fonts won't display in emails to external contacts. If you are unsure, please contact Marketing or IT for assistance.

TYPESETTING

The text to the right illustrates an example of how typography could be structured for any marketing collateral or documents.

It is important to keep consistent hierarchy between headings, feature text and body text.

Montserrat is to be used for headings, intro copy and sub-headings in Adelaide Plains Council branded collateral.

Sarabun is to be used for body copy and sub-headings in Adelaide Plains Council branded collateral.

A set of patterns/icons have been created reflecting the five pillars of the logo (land + water borders, rivers, crops and bushland/environment).

The patterns below are to use the corresponding original logo colour palette, placed over the newer refreshed version of that colour. Instructions on how and where to use these elements is on the following pages.

These patterns are available in formats for print and on-screen/web purposes, these being:

For print: AI, EPS

On-screen: PNG, JPEG

DESIGN SYSTEM

A square grid layout system has been developed to aid in designing Adelaide Plains Council branded material.

By splitting your page into a square grid any imagery, blocks of colour and text can be easily moved around within the grid to create original but consistent designs.

Pages should be split into 12 squares across for horizontal (landscape) layouts and 8 squares across for vertical (portrait) layouts.

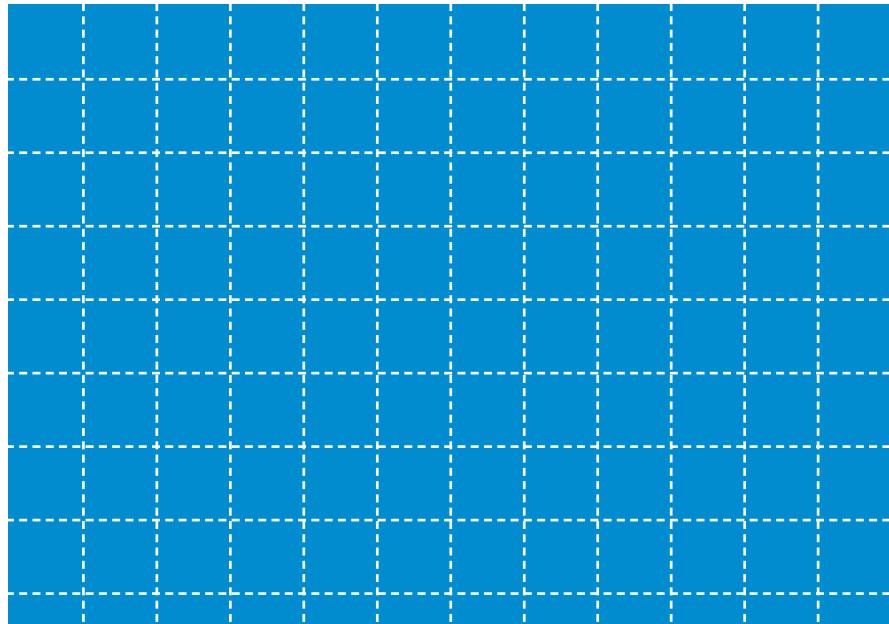

The top or bottom line of text should align with the horizontal line on the grid system

PROUD SPIRITED GENEROUS

Patterns to be used within blocks of colour. No more than 2 patterns should appear on any 1 page layout.

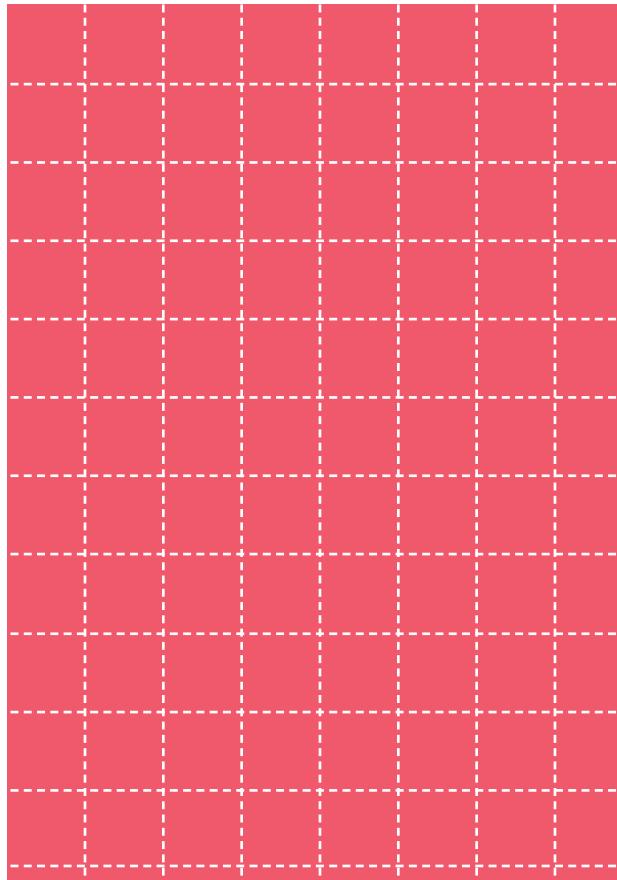

DESIGN SYSTEM (HORIZONTAL)

As A Series page sizes (A4, A3 etc.) are not completely square, when aligning an element to the bottom of a page, keep the square proportions but anchor to the bottom corner of a page.

> How to view gridlines in Word, PowerPoint, or Excel <

DESIGN SYSTEM (VERTICAL)

As part of a branding style, photography in Adelaide Plains Council collateral should showcase the region through its people, places, business activities and community events.

Photography should portray Adelaide Plains in a positive, warm and welcoming manner. Images should strive to show a mix of urban/residential and rural settings, depicting both sides of the region.

Ensure images are high quality, and a mix of wide angle and close up photography is used where possible.

All photographs for Adelaide Plains collateral must be approved by Marketing/Corporate Services.

If you need any assistance sourcing photographs, please contact the Marketing and Communications Officer.
