

Media Release

Adelaide Plains Council Public Forum in Dublin: Hear the latest Council news and speak to your Council Members

Adelaide Plains Council invites the community to its Public Forum on Monday 31 July 2023, from 6pm to 7.30pm, at the Dublin Institute.

All community members of the Adelaide Plains are welcome to attend. The night will provide an opportunity to hear the latest Council news, meet Council Members in-person, and for the community to provide feedback or ask questions about Council-related matters.

Where: Dublin Institute, 9 Sixth Street Dublin SA

When: 31 July 2023, 6pm to 7.30pm

Registrations: are encouraged to assist with preparation, and provides the opportunity to pre-submit a topic for discussion.

<https://www.apc.sa.gov.au/our-council/publicconsultation>

This Forum is the second of three that will take place across the region in 2023, in accordance with the Council's Community Engagement Policy – Public Forums. They provide an opportunity for access to accurate information, and open communication with elected representatives.

Council is committed to working with our community; we value all feedback and encourage two-way communication with our residents and ratepayers. We look forward to seeing you at our next forum.

Mayor Wasley

19 July 2023