Councillor Resignation

Adelaide Plains Council wishes to advise that on 5 October 2023, Councillor John Lush formally resigned from his position as an elected member of the Adelaide Plains Council.

Councillor Lush has been a valuable contributor to the Chamber over the past 5 years and has served on Council's Infrastructure and Environment Committee and as Council's Deputy Board Member on the Gawler River Floodplain Management Authority.

Councillor Lush has been a strong advocate in advancing Council's Tourism and Economic Development Strategy, having a passion for the improvement and promotion of Council's coastal settlements. He has also directed his energy towards improvements to Council's freight and tourism road networks.

I wish to thank Councillor Lush for his service and contributions to the Adelaide Plains Council community and wish Councillor Lush all the best for his future.

A report will be presented to Council at the October ordinary meeting in relation to the casual vacancy created.
